

FREE LIVE SESSION · NOTES

When God feels silent

DATE

Saturday 19 September 2026

TIME

10:00 – 11:30am WAT

TAUGHT BY

Wango Boris

The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

LAMENTATIONS 3:25-26 · KJV

The premise

What the silence usually is, what it usually is not, and what to actually do in it — instead of quietly concluding that something is wrong with you.

The season nobody warns you about

Nobody talks about it, but everyone experiences it: the dry season — when heaven seems silent, prayer feels monotonous, and you sense nothing. These notes are here so that when it comes, it does not take you out.

“I waited patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.”

PSALM 40:1 · KJV

Expect it honestly: much of your prayer life will consist of quiet moments. That is not a sign that something broke.

THE PRINCIPLE EVERYTHING TURNS ON

Dry seasons are formation, not abandonment.

BE HONEST — WRITE IT DOWN

When my prayer time feels dry, do I push through, shorten it, or quietly quit?

How to use these notes. Four movements follow — take one a day, Sunday to Wednesday. The rest of the week is for practising the four steps. On Saturday, before the next session, come back to the question above.

01

MOVEMENT ONE

Formation, not abandonment

Dry seasons are formation, not abandonment.

- Moses spent forty years in the wilderness feeling like his future was gone — while God was quietly building gentleness, patience, and the strength not to give up in him.
- How you navigate the valley determines whether you become a friend of God or quit before the breakthrough.
- In the quiet seasons, let Scripture speak, and listen for God through preachers, books and friends. He is still talking.

“Valleys are where God forges the person you must become on the inside to face the chaos on the outside.”

When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

ISAIAH 43:2 · KJV

02

MOVEMENT TWO

Three lies, corrected

In the silence, something always rushes in to explain it. Correct it with facts.

~~“He has stopped listening to me.”~~

Silence is not rejection

“I will never leave thee” is a statement of fact, not a feeling. He may be closer than ever.

~~“My prayer life is failing.”~~

Dryness is not failure

Stop trying to fuel prayer with emotional highs. Soaking music is fine — dependence on it is not.

~~“I feel nothing, so nothing is happening.”~~

Feelings are not a measure of reality

If you are keeping your time with God and His Word, your spiritual life is not dry — whatever your emotions say.

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you.

JAMES 4:8 · KJV

“God is faithful even when we don’t feel Him.”

03

MOVEMENT THREE

The four-step response

What to actually do on the morning prayer feels like nothing.

1

Stay consistent

Do not break the routine. Same time, same place.

2

Simplify

Worship briefly, read a few verses, pray simply, and be honest: "Lord, I feel dry. Help me."

3

Search your heart

Offence, stress and anxiety harden the heart. Surrender them; release unforgiveness.

4

Obey

Clarity often returns through obedience. Go back to the last instruction God gave you. Have you done it?

But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

ISAIAH 40:31 · KJV

"Your altar isn't built by intensity; it is fuelled by your returns."

04

MOVEMENT FOUR

Missing once, missing twice

Missing once is an event. Missing twice is the beginning of a new habit.

The whisper

INTERPRETATION

"He's ignoring you."

"You're failing."

"This isn't working — quit."

The truth

FACT

He may be closer than ever.

Sometimes nothing is wrong — He is building endurance.

Missing once is only an event.

I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.

PSALM 130:5 · KJV

When the enemy whispers "this isn't working — quit," remember: winners push through dry seasons.

BEFORE NEXT SATURDAY

Expect at least one dry prayer session this week.

- 1 When it comes, don't panic
It is not a verdict. It is the week you were warned about.
- 2 Don't quit
Show up again the next day — same time, same place.
- 3 Apply the four steps
Stay consistent · Simplify · Search your heart · Obey.

FOR THE DRY DAY

*“Lord, I feel dry.
Help me.”*

That is a whole prayer, and it counts.

THE WEEK — TICK EVERY MORNING YOU SHOWED UP, DRY OR NOT

SUN 20 01 Formation ☐	MON 21 02 Three lies ☐	TUE 22 03 Four steps ☐	WED 23 04 Once or twice ☐	THU 24 Show up ☐	FRI 25 Show up ☐	SAT 26 Look back · 10am ☐

THREE QUESTIONS TO SIT WITH

- 1 How do you usually respond when your prayer time feels dry — push through, shorten it, or quietly quit?

- 2 Which misconception have you believed — that silence is rejection, dryness is failure, or feelings measure reality? How has it affected you?

- 3 Looking at the four-step plan — stay consistent, simplify, search your heart, obey — which step do you most need right now, and what will you do about it?

A PROMISE FOR THE WEEK

...for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

Hebrews 13:5 · KJV
